

Directions

JOC-
JAC-
JOE

Complete activities to form a winning pattern – across, down, or diagonal. Staple this sheet to your three products (if applicable) and include the rubric. Choose activities you'll be successful at – show your stuff and your comprehension of our topic!

Write a letter to the author, Avi, telling him your opinion of his novel, Nothing but the Truth. Use correct letter format and find Avi's publisher's address online.	Create a diorama of a scene in the novel. On the back, include a description of the scene and tell why it is significant.	Write an imaginary conversation between two characters in the novel. You choose who and write one page of conversation. Then, write a short explanation of what you think this would add to the novel.
Select a conversation from the novel and memorize it with a partner or small group. Perform for the class.	Design a new cover design for the novel Nothing but the Truth. What design would make you want to read the novel? Why? Write an explanation of your choice on paper and attach to your design.	Write an acrostic poem for the words NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH about the novel. Decorate/ embellish your poem.
Create a brochure/pamphlet for Harrison High School. Include information about enrollment, classes, activities and sports, pictures, and key distinguishing features of the school.	Write about a time at our school when a student and teacher had a disagreement. This narrative should include a retelling of the event and your personal opinion of who was right, who was wrong, and why. Connect to Philip and	Write a speech to perform to the class. Argue who was correct, Philip or Miss Narwin, in the novel.